

I am in Indiana resident who strongly believes our "no-call" list, championed by Attorney General Stephen Carter, is the only useful piece of real government assistance in many years. Please help us keep unwanted, unsolicited phone calls from disturbing us by denying the current suit challenging our laws. Respectfully, Dan Drexler